Sturdy Savings Bank Presents 2017 Annual Employees' Donation to Citizens/Veterans Advisory Council

Cape May Court House, NJ – December 21, 2017 – Sturdy Savings Bank recently presented the Citizens/Veterans Advisory Council (CVAC) with their 2017 annual employees' donation.

The employees' donation amount of $7,000 will be used to help homeless veterans find permanent housing. Every year, Sturdy Savings Bank employees select a local non-profit organization for which to collect monetary donations. The CVAC is a team of veteran and citizen volunteers dedicated to making a difference in the lives of veterans and their families in Cape May County. They assist veterans who return from deployment or combat with immediate assistance, as well as offering guidance for a variety of long-term needs.

The annual donation was presented by Sturdy Savings Bank President and CEO Gerald L. Reeves; and Sturdy Savings Bank Senior Vice President and Director of Human Resources Trina McSorley, on behalf of the employees.

Sturdy Savings Bank serves Cape May County and the City of Somers Point at 13 branches located in Avalon, Cape May, Cape May Court House, Dennisville, North Cape May, North Wildwood, Ocean City, Rio Grande, Somers Point, Stone Harbor, Tuckahoe, and Wildwood Crest.

Sturdy Savings Bank, Member FDIC, was built on a simple principle: serving the community. Their mission remains the same ~ over 95 years later. Sturdy employees are committed to neighborhood service. You'll find them where it matters most: your little league fields, senior citizen centers, schools, firehouses and churches. They'll be at the AARP luncheons, the local symphony concerts and the food pantry fundraisers. Sturdy has grown from a small-town savings and loan association to a local, full service bank that understands there is no place like "home," and they are dedicated to their role as a community neighbor, partner and leader.
