Sturdy Savings Bank Promotes Trina McSorley to Executive Vice President

Cape May Court House – September 9, 2019 – Sturdy Savings Bank has announced that Trina McSorley, SPHR, SHRM-SCP has been promoted from Senior Vice President to Executive Vice President.

Prior to her promotion, Trina, who is also Director of Human Resources at Sturdy Savings Bank, worked for the bank in this capacity for eight years, bringing more than 25 years of experience in Human Resources to her position. She also serves as Board Secretary and Assistant Corporate Secretary for the bank; and holds several certifications, including a Senior Professional in Human Resources certification (SPHR) from HRCI (Human Resource Certification Institute), and a SHRM Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP) certification from SHRM (Society for Human Resources Management). Trina holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from Messiah College and Master of Business Administration from Monmouth University.

“I am honored to accept this promotion to Executive Vice President at Sturdy Savings Bank,” Trina said. “It is rewarding to be recognized for my work and dedication to a job I enjoy and an institution that I believe puts its best foot forward for both its employees and customers.”

Trina’s dedication to her job is also reflective in her volunteer work. She has participated in Operation Fireside with the Red Cross for over ten years; and serves on the boards of Volunteers in Medicine (Finance and Human Resource Committees) and Family Promise (Treasurer). She additionally serves in a leadership role of the Southern Shore HR Management Association, a SHRM affiliated chapter; and on the Cape May County Coast Guard Community Foundation Festival Committee. Trina was previously on the Board of the Southern Shore Chapter of the American Red Cross and served on allocation committees for the United Way of Atlantic County for eleven years.

“We are pleased to promote Trina to Executive Vice President for Sturdy Savings Bank. She is an invaluable member of our Executive team, and this promotion is reflective of our appreciation for her hard work and dedication,” said Sturdy Savings Bank President Jerry Reeves.
