

NICHOL L. HOFF, AIF® ChFC®

Financial Advisor
Investment Advisor Representative, RJFS

With the knowledge that comes from more than 30 years of experience in banking and the financial services industry, Nichol Hoff navigates the landscape of available investment options with clients; providing personalized service and a commitment to success. Nichol works to assist clients in achieving their financial goals with confidence and minimized risk. The Sturdy Financial Services collaboration with Raymond James opens access for Nichol to the financial guidance and services of one of the largest independent full-service financial services firms. These assets are applied to each client's financial plan and portfolio, based on informed decisions that are tailored to each client's investment needs.

Nichol started her financial services career in 1992. A graduate of Thomas Edison University, with a degree in Business Administration, she is a certified Chartered Financial Consultant – a professional designation specializing in the fields of financial planning, including planning for blended families and divorcees. Nichol holds an Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF), a designation demonstrating knowledge and continuing education to serve as a fiduciary.

When not in the office, Nichol enjoys spending time with her family and friends at the shore or in the mountains. She travels to watch her daughter Emma and her horse Carlito compete at rated equestrian shows throughout the country. She is an avid exercise enthusiast and enjoys sharing her passion with others. Nichol is an active member of the community and currently serves as President of the Board of Education in the Dennis Township School District.

NOTE: Raymond James does not provide tax or legal services. Please discuss these matters with the appropriate professional.
